Partner Sandy Griffin Receives Troy Sloan Good Neighbor Award

At the recent Rural Chief Appraisers Conference, Sandy was recognized for her service with the Troy Sloan Good Neighbor Award. The purpose of this award is to recognize and show appreciation to individuals who, acting as good neighbors to rural chief appraisers and appraisal districts, have promoted the aims and goals of the Texas Rural Chief Appraisers (TRCA). The suggestion for the award was made by Troy Sloan, one of the original Steering Committee Members. In 2010, the Steering Committee decided to change the name of the award to the "Troy Sloan Good Neighbor Award" in recognition of Sloan's dedication and service to TRCA. To qualify for the award, one must: support TRCA, support rural appraisal districts, be a good friend to TRCA, and have a Good Neighbor attitude.

Perdue Brandon is proud of Sandy and her exemplary representation of the Firm. We are honored to have her as part of our team. She is a shining example of our Core Values - putting people first, integrity, going above the line, excellence and tenacity.
