Smith County Bar Association hosts Law Day luncheon

May 14, 2018

The Smith County Bar Association and its philanthropic arm, the Smith County Bar Foundation, celebrated Law Day on May 9 with a luncheon at the UT Tyler Ornelas Activity Center.

Alan Jackson and Tab Beall

Law Day is the largest gathering of attorneys in Smith County, and is intended to celebrate the critical role of the law in a democratic society. The luncheon also recognized the achievements of certain members of the legal community and community-at-large. The theme designated this year by the American Bar Association is The Separation of Powers: Framework for Freedom.

The following awards were presented at the luncheon:

- Smith County Bar Foundation's 2018 Justinian Award - Honorable Robert M. Parker
- Smith County Bar Foundation's 2018 Award of Excellence - Tab Beall
- Smith County Young Lawyers Association 2018 Outstanding Young Lawyer award - Stuart Hene
- 2018 Liberty Bell Award - Lana Peacock
- 2018 Legal Professional of the Year award - Ann Kuhn.
